

Three answers to the following questions:

What does it mean to you when someone listens to your opinion or asks your advice?

To have someone listen to you and ask your advice gives you a good feeling. It helps you "get on board."

Why are Residents' Rights important and what would you like staff members to know about Residents' Rights?

It helps for staff and residents to know about Residents' Rights. Sometimes a memo to refresh our minds of them would help.

How are residents involved in decision making at Golden Living-The Cedars?

Residents need to have their voice heard. Residents need to get involved in the group meetings here so that they can speak up and let their voices be heard. It's good to have input into changes and updates!

By Ruth Estes, Resident
Golden Living-The Cedars
1242 Cedars Ct.
Charlottesville, Va 22903
434-296-5611