

Physical Restraints: Decision Tree

This material was developed by the QIO program for CMS' NHQI and is intended as general information. Any individual using the material must consider the possibility of human error, changes in medical sciences, and the need to use clinical judgment in each specific case.