CONSUMER VOICE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The National Consumer Voice for Quality Long-Term Care (formerly NCCNHR) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization founded as the National Citizen's Coalition for Nursing Home Reform (NCCNHR) in 1975 by Elma Holder. We represent the consumer voice at the national level for quality long-term care, services and supports by:

- advocating for public policies that support quality care and quality of life responsive to consumers' needs in all long-term-care settings;
- empowering and educating consumers and families with the knowledge and tools they need to advocate for themselves;
- training and supporting individuals and groups that empower and advocate for consumers of long-term care; and
- promoting the critical role of direct-care workers and best practices in quality-care delivery.

You can help us help long-term care consumers. The Consumer Voice offers a 12-month membership program, open to anyone interested in supporting and advocating for long-term care consumers. You can join as an individual and/or a group.

Membership benefits include:

For individuals:

- Help support the Consumer Voice to advocate for the quality of care and life for all persons receiving long-term care
- Receive significantly discounted registration rates for the annual conference, webinars, publications and other events
- Have access to our monthly publication the Gazette, public policy alerts and other critical long-term care information

For groups:

- Help support the Consumer Voice to advocate for the quality of care and life for all persons receiving long-term care
- Have voting rights at the Consumer Voice if you are a consumer-controlled organization (vote on public policy resolutions, leadership positions, etc.)
- Receive (all members of your group) our monthly publication the Gazette, public policy alerts and other critical long-term care information
- Have access to a designated number of "spots" to give individuals in your group the discounted member rate for the annual conference, webinars, and publications
- Save money if you have two or more people in a group that are interested in Consumer Voice membership
